GERMANY MAKES PROPOSALS FOR PEACE TREATY

Thirteen Billion Marks Are Asked by Germans on Account of Allied Blockade—Belgian Frontiers Closed

BERLIN—The German delegation to Versailles will present a counter claim of twelve billion, eight hundred and fifty million marks for damages from the allied blockade, as an offset to reparation demands by the Allied powers.

AMSTERDAM—Belgian frontiers have been closed and all Belgian soldiers have been recalled from leave. It is reported that general mobilization will be ordered at the termination of the period given Germany to sign the treaty of peace at Versailles.

BERLIN—The official summary of Germany's counter proposals to the peace treaty issued last night is in part as follows: Germany offers to disarm all her battle ships on condition that part of her mercantile fleet will be restored. She proposes that there be no territorial changes without consultation of populations affected. Upper Silesia and claims to East Prussia, West Prussia and Memel are emphatically rejected. It is stipulated that Danzig shall become a free port and the River Vistula in the neutralized occupied territory to be evacuated within six months. If the League of Nations is established with Germany as a member, Germany shall continue to administer her colonies in accordance with the principles of the League. As its mandatory, Germany offers to pay 20 billion marks in gold by the year 1926 as indemnity and to make annual payments from 1927 onward to total not in excess of 100 billion marks in gold. The statutes of the League of Nations, it is asserted, contradict numerous declarations made by governments opposed to Germany and the League is merely a continuation of the enemy's coalition. The reply maintains that the treaty shows Germany as a nation which is simply to be destroyed, and adds that this is a complete repudiation of the idea that every nation has a right to exist and it violates the right of self-determination. The counter proposal says that the treaty involves the destruction of German economy and life and subjects the German people to a financial slavery which is unparalleled in the history of the world. If such a treaty came into force, it is declared that it would mean a fresh catastrophe for the whole world.

G. S. Chapin, superintendent of the Karheen Packing company was in town the last of the week on the Anna M. Nixon, which took out a scow load of lumber from the Willson & Sylvester sawmill.

Charles Borch, Jr., and family left on the Glenora Friday morning for Craig where they will spend the summer. Mr. Borch will work in the fish house of the Lindeberg Packing company.

Miss Grace Wigg, who has been in San Francisco the past year attending the pharmacy branch of the University of California, is expected to return home on the Admiral Evans.

CALL FOR PUBLIC MEETING

A public meeting of citizens—both men and women—is hereby called to meet in the town hall on Monday evening, June 2, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of taking steps for a proper observance of Independence Day, July 4, 1919.

J. W. PRITCHETT,
Mayor.

Leaves for Washington

SEATTLE—Wickersham left last night for Washington. Before leaving he sent a wire message to Henry T. Ray of Fairbanks regarding the Alaska railroad in which he said it was his purpose to pass a bill giving additional millions for the needed sham, and to persist until the road "is completed notwithstanding deliberate efforts of the democratic stool pigeons to prevent success."

POSTAL UNION OF CANADA IS READY TO STRIKE

TORONTO—Canadian postal union employees have decided to call a general strike from Sault Ste Marie to the Pacific coast to begin Sunday night.

HEAVY DEFEATS

PETROGRAD—Reported here that Radakona is in the hands of Chinese and Finnish Reds who are said to have mastered the Soviet authorities after heavy street fighting. Workmen are patrolling the Workmen's district to prevent Chinese from pillaging. The Bolsheviks have placarded the city, threatening to execute the bourgeoisie class if they are compelled to leave the city.

LONDON—Heavy defeats administered to Bolsheviks in both north and south Russia according to announcement of the war office today. Two Communist regiments were destroyed in North Russia west of Rodakona.

F. H. Gray stated to the Sentinel reporter this week that a few days ago he came upon the largest bull moose he had ever seen. The animal was on the mainland about 15 miles from Wrangell. Mr. Gray states that he is positive that it stood over seven feet at the shoulders. It was rolling fat although this is the time of the year when moose are generally poor.

Captain De Geldere, superintendent of the cannery of the Booth Fisheries at Kasan Bay, was in Wrangell Monday. He came via Santa Ana where he took on a load of cans which were left over from last season, and returned via Shakan where the Booth Fisheries have another cannery which is not in operation this year.

Mrs. M. Patterson and Miss H. Kingsley arrived from Portland last week and after spending a few days at the Wrangell hotel left for Cape Fanshaw where they will take positions with the Alaska Sanitary Packing company.

Lee Hiltz, with his new boat Ictor, is picking up fish for the Columbia Northern. He left Wednesday to take in the country around Lemisure Point, Deer Island and Bradfield Canal. He expects to make two trips a week.

Mrs. M. O. Johnson and daughters, Dorothy and Marjorie, are leaving Sunday for Seattle and various Sound points where they will spend the summer visiting with relatives and friends.

FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC MADE BY THE NC4

Aviators Are Honored by Royalty—Ruth Law Says She Will Attempt to Fly Across the Pond Soon.

PONTA DEL GADA—The Atlantic has been crossed by flight, the American Navy winning the honor. The NC 4 accomplished the feat, winging its way to Lisbon today from the Azores whence it had already flown from Newfoundland.

LONDON—The crew of the NC 4 were decorated with the grand cross of the Order of Tower and Sword. The decoration was presented by the Portuguese foreign minister, while the cheering crowd stood outside Buckingham palace. The king today decorated Hawker and Grieve with air force cross letter. The two were luncheon guests of the London Daily Mail which presented them with a $25,000 consolation prize.

CHICAGO—Ruth Law, aviatrix, has announced that she plans to attempt the trans-Atlantic flight within the next six weeks. She will use a Curtis land biplane equipped with two Curtis motors and will be accompanied by James Lament, her mechanical expert. She expects the Navy to give her assistance.

WILSON CALLED TEACHER OF ALL I. W. W. DOCTRINE

SEATTLE—The I. W. W. drew its philosophy from the teachings of President Wilson and regarded his book, "The New Freedom," as a powerful exposition of organization's view of existing relations between capital and labor, was the contention of Dein in the trial of James Bruce charged with criminal anarchy.

INSURANCE MEN SAY THEY WILL QUIT TERRITORY

SEATTLE—The principal fire and marine insurance companies have definitely decided to withdraw from business in Alaska because of the "Restricting Requirements" law recently enacted by the legislature which was introduced by Senator J. R. Heckman, requiring insurance companies to maintain agents' agencies in Alaska.

The monthly meeting of the executive committee of the American Red Cross will be held on Tuesday evening, June 10th instead of June 3d. Members please take notice.

Josephine H. Mason,
Secretary.

Wm. Cleary who was formerly employed in the Wrangell restaurant, was aboard the Admiral Evans Sunday en route to Seattle. Mr. Cleary has been in military service during the past year. He received his discharge last week at Ft. Seward.

The Ripley Fish company shipped 43 boxes of fish on the Admiral Evans Sunday morning.

SAWYER JAILED ON A CHARGE OF SEDITION

Complaint Sworn to by Ensign Hughes of Sub Chaser 309 Bond Fixed at $2000 Which Sawyer Failed to Give.

B. R. Sawyer was arrested Sunday morning, charged with having seditious literature in his possession. The complaint was sworn to by Ensign J. J. Hughes, of sub chaser 309.

Saturday night while Sawyer was out of town his cabin was searched by officers. The search was made by Ensign J. J. Hughes, Deputy U. S. Marshal H. J. Wallace and Ernest P. Walker of the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries.

Probably the most damaging find made by the officers was a single sheet of manuscript containing several verses of doggerel under the title, "The Bolsheviks Are Coming." It was in Sawyer's handwriting, and was a song of rejoicing that the Bolsheviks were coming, which would mean that the "parlor lizards would have to go to work." At the bottom of the sheet were the words, "Written by Blackie." (Sawyer is known as Blackie.)

In Sawyer's cabin were also found two bundles of pamphlets which are supposed to have been in his possession for the purpose of distribution. The pamphlets were entitled, "The Student's Epitome of Scientific Socialism," written by Dan Ronald and published by the Western Workmen's Publishing Society of Astoria, Oregon. The publisher's imprint bears the date of May, 1917. In the preface of this pamphlet it is stated that "The objective of this pamphlet is sound revolutionary education."

The pamphlets in the other bundle were entitled, "The Soviets at Work," being a discussion of the problems faced by the Soviet government of Russia written by Nikolai Lenin, Premier of the Russian Soviet Republic. This pamphlet was printed by the Seattle Union Record Publishing company. The foreword which takes up two pages was written by Anna Louise Strong of Seattle. In connection with the publishers' imprint are the words "Sixteenth Thousand."

Among Sawyer's effects were also found a pocket edition of the Rubaiyat by Omar Khayyam. It was well worn and doubtless had been carried in the pocket for a considerable time. On one of the fly leaves of this book was written, "Frank R. Mason, Born in Detroit in 1836."

At 11 o'clock Monday forenoon Sawyer was brought before U. S. Commissioner C. E. Weber for a preliminary hearing.

Deputy U. S. Marshal H. J. Wallace was the first witness called for the Government. Mr. Wallace testified that he considered the literature found in Sawyer's cabin seditious.

Ernest P. Walker testified that he had examined the literature found in Sawyer's cabin and he considered it of a nature likely to incite resentment to the United States Government.

Ensign J. J. Hughes of sub chaser 309 was the last witness called. The Ensign stated that the literature found in Sawyer's cabin was such as would be likely to inflame the mind of the reader, and that he was satisfied that it would have a tendency to disrupt the good morals of the United States Government.

The defendant had no witnesses and waived his right to make a statement. Sawyer was asked by the Commissioner where he was born. He said he could not swear where he was born—that would be up to his mother. He added, however, that he is supposed to have been born in Quebec. He was asked if the literature found in his cabin was his. He replied: "I have not read the pamphlets. I have had the Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam some time." Sawyer was then asked concerning his occupation and place of residence. He replied: "I ain't going to make no statement until I get counsel." The Commissioner stated that he would bind the defendant over to await the action of the grand jury. Sawyer asked about bond. The Commissioner told him that he would fix the bond at $2,000. The defendant was then committed to the U. S. deputy marshal for safe keeping. On the way to the jail Sawyer asked if he could be permitted to send a dispatch to Ketchikan in the interest of securing bail. This request was granted.

The preliminary hearing did not last over 10 minutes. Sawyer's manner was indicative of fear, it being plain that he felt very uncomfortable.

Officers had Sawyer's picture taken and also secured his fingerprints. In commenting on this Sawyer said to a visitor who called on him at the jail, "They got everything they could get, but my pedigree."

It is not at all unlikely that by the time Sawyer comes to trial there will be other charges against him. The indications are that he is a slacker. He has no military registration card. He claims that he registered in Canada and lost his card. If it is true that he registered in Canada it is a matter of record there and he can very easily establish the fact, even though he has lost his registration card.

Sawyer, before his arrest, stated to various people in Wrangell that he had lived in the North for the past 17 years, being in the region of Southeastern Alaska the most of the time. He claims to have had considerable experience in union affairs, and says that he was formerly secretary of the Longshoremen's union in Prince Rupert.

At the time of his arrest Sawyer was holding the position of secretary of Wrangell Local No. 10, Alaska Labor Union, having been elected to fill out the unexpired term of Knig Johansen who resigned recently. While he never made any nepotistic utterances on the floor of the union, he was radical in his views and advocated measures which were opposed by the more conservative members. He was more aggressive than any other member of the Wrangell local, and it was largely through his influence and efforts that the union declared a boycott on the local fish buyers last week.

On account of being secretary-treasurer, Sawyer had much to do with the business of the Wrangell union. Since his arrest his books have been gone over by the officers of the union. They found no evidence of crooked work.

The reporter has not heard one word uttered in Sawyer's defense by any union man but many are denouncing him. The fact that there has been no effort made by local union men to secure bail for him is in itself equivalent to his repudiation by the Wrangell Labor Union.

Elmer Sieversen, who recently returned from France, was a visitor to Wrangell Monday.

LUDECKE HERE FROM SITKA ON A VISIT

Officiated at Hoisting of First American Flag in Alaska—Was a Resident of Wrangell Thirty-nine Years.

E. Ludecke, who has been at the Pioneer's home at Sitka for the past six years arrived on the Admiral Evans Sunday.

Mr. Ludecke was 39 years a resident of Wrangell. His visit here at this time is in response to an invitation from the Memorial Day committee, who desired his presence not only as an old soldier and friend, but because he would be able to identify the unmarked graves of several soldiers who are buried in the local cemetery.

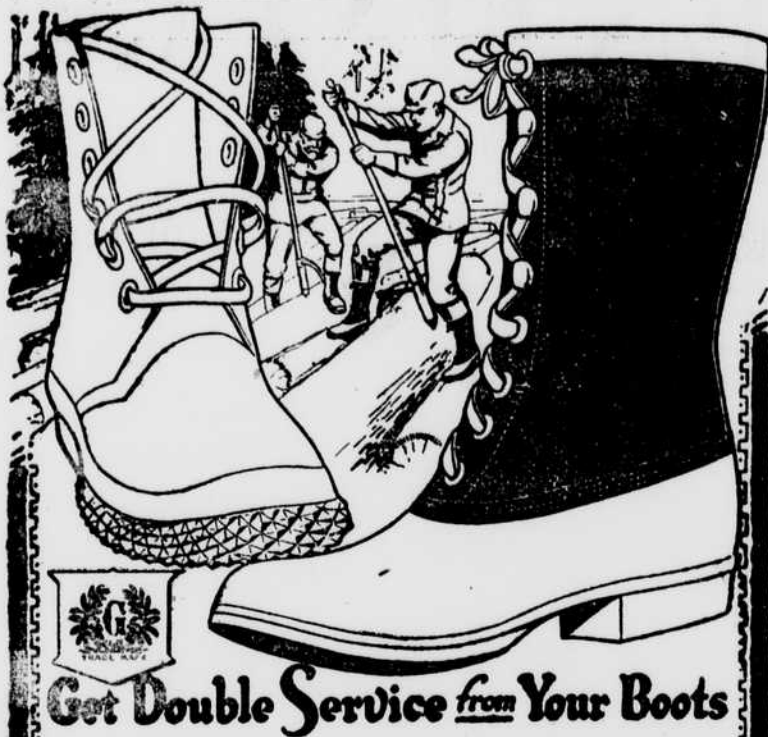

A notable incident in Mr. Ludecke's life was his officiating at the hoisting of the first American flag ever raised in Alaska, which took place at Sitka more than 50 years ago.

Mr. Ludecke enlisted for military service in San Francisco in 1865. He was stationed at Sitka from 1867 to 1869. After receiving his discharge in 1869 he remained in Alaska until 1872 when he went into the Cassiar. After spending several years in that region he took up residence in Wrangell, remaining here until his departure for the Pioneer's home at Sitka six years ago.

Mr. Ludecke is wonderfully well preserved for a man of 84 years. Longevity seems to be characteristic of his family. He has a sister who is 101 years of age.

The reporter asked Mr. Ludecke if he noted many changes during the past six years. He replied: "Everything looks pretty much the same. In fact there are not as many changes in the population as I expected. Nearly all the old-timers are still here, and I do not see many new faces. You have some of the best people in Alaska in Wrangell. I lived among them a long time and I am sure you could not find better people anywhere. The only thing that ever worries me now is being unable to work. As long as I am working I am perfectly contented."

Mrs. J. S. Clark and daughter, Miss Virginia Clark returned on the Jefferson Sunday from Afognak where Miss Clark has been teaching the past year. Rev. J. S. Clark met his wife and daughter in Petersburg and accompanied them on the remainder of the voyage home.

ARE YOU?

A FARMER carrying an express package from a big mail-order house was accosted by a local dealer.

"Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express, and besides you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and builds up this locality."

The farmer looked at the merchant a moment and then said: "Why don't you patronize your home paper and advertise? I read it and didn't know that you had this stuff I have here."

GOOD THINGS TO EAT IN THE YUKON

In the development number of the Dawson Daily News this spring is an advertisement from a cafe in Dawson which is calculated to make the reader want to go straightway to that cafe and get something to eat. The menu proves that Yukon is a great producer of food stuffs, every item mentioned being the product of some Yukon farm, forest or stream.

Beginning with soup, the hungry one may have Puree of Yukon Green Peas, St. Valliere; or Bouillon en Tasse, or Cream of Dawson Chicken a la Reine.

In salads there is a choice of Yukon Combination, Hothouse Lettuce with Stampede Dressing, Chicken a la Eldorado, Crisp Klondike Celery, Bonanza Basin Dill Pickles or Quartz Creek Pickles.

Following a selection of fish which may be either Boiled Yukon Salmon, Baked Klondike Greyling, Planked Mayo Lake Trout or Whitefish, Fried Tullibee with Yukon Silver Chips, Inconnu Steak with Mackenzie Sauce or Grilled Lake Tetlamana Tizra, the diner may have a boiled All-Yukon Dinner, comprised entirely of Yukon vegetables and meats with the following entrees: Grilled Caribou Steak with Fresh Dawson Mushroom Sauce, Glacier Moose Steak, with Bacon, Grilled Bonanza Pig Sausage and Country Gravy, Tornadoes of White River Mountain Sheep and Braised Fillet of Flat Creek Veal.

Some of the After 5 p. m. Specialties are Peel River Caribou Chops, Chieftain Style; Grilled Tenderloin of Moose, Tyrolienne; Trio of Baby Mountain Sheep Chops, Le Grand; Milk-fed Swede Creek Chicken, en Casserole; "Three-Minute" Pelly Sirloin, Potatoes Tom O'Brien; Breaded Klondike Pork Tenderloin; Glaced West Dawson Spuds; Flaked White Meat of Grouse, en Patties; Grilled Ptarmigan, en Bordure.

If one has had these specialties so often that he is really a little tired of them, he might care for one of these Roasts: Leg of Sixty-Mile Caribou, Currant Jelly; Loin of Moose, Natural Gravy; Half Mallard Duck, a la Jackadale; Roast Goose, Sourdough Sauce; Leg of Fresh-killed Klondike Pork, Apple Sauce; Haunch of Native Veal, Celery Dressing; Pelly River Farm Prime Ribs of Beef, au jus; Young Sunnydale Chicken (stuffed,) Giblet Gravy; Guggerville Tom Turkey, Celery Dressing, Cranberry Sauce.

With all these orders are served Steamed or Mashed Klondike Potatoes, Klondike Turnips, Fresh Spinach, Yukon Parsnips, Yukon Baby Beets.

The diner may not be so terribly hungry by this time, but how can he resist dessert when he may have Sourdough Blueberry Cobbler, Rocky Mountain Ice Cream, Goldfield's Whipped Cream, or Yukon Blueberry, Rhubarb, Pumpkin, Cranberry, Raspberry and Mince Pies.

Other items mentioned are Yukon Strawberries and Cream, Native Smearcase, Cracked Wheat, Oatmeal Mush, Griddle Cakes, Muffins, Whole Wheat Bread, all from Yukon-grown cereals; Klondike-made Butter, Eureka Creek Beet Syrup and Klondike Dairy Milk.

Many Natives of Douglas are camping on the point near Taku inlet and are trolling for king salmon, it being a very profitable occupation, as they get on an average five dollars for each fish caught. One Native caught a seven dollar fish recently. Many of the men have caught as high as 10 fish in a day, trolling by hand.

RETURNS FROM OVERSEAS

Dr. Brown's Son Reaches St. Louis After More Than a Year's Service in France

Dr. Anna Brown received a letter Tuesday from St. Louis, telling of the arrival in that city of her son Daniel, who has been overseas for more than a year with the 138th Infantry. Benjamin Brown, another son who was overseas, had his eyes injured and was sent home four months ago. He was in St. Louis at the time his brother arrived there.

According to the letter received by Dr. Brown the arrival of the 138th in St. Louis marked an epoch in the military history of that city. Among the tunes played by the bands were "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," and "How You Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm, after They've Seen Parree?"

According to young Brown the trip from Newport News to St. Louis was the happiest journey he had ever experienced. The trip was enlivened by boyish pranks, games, the swapping of war stories, and filling up on dainties. The Red Cross had provided a baggage car loaded with cake, and at almost every stop along the way the good people would have some dainties for them. Boxes of chocolates were as common as peanuts, and the boys filled up on sweets to such an extent that no mess was served at night. This was at their own request. At the stations along the way the soldiers would flirt with the smiling girls, and then after the train had pulled out they would toss their overseas caps into the air, hug each other and dance. Officers, commissioned and non-commissioned, joined in the jollification on the homeward trip.

Dr. Brown's son expects to receive his discharge very soon after his arrival at Camp Funston. An automatic device has been invented by Tom Running, a fisherman and for 12 years a resident of Alaska and now living in Juneau, which may revolutionize the fishing industry. The invention will enable three men to operate a big purse seine boat where about eight men are now needed, and the automatic apparatus, if it will do the work claimed of it, will let out and pull in the seine by power from the boat's engine, and will do the work much more rapidly than can be done with manual labor, and coils the seine up on the deck of the craft. The working model is in Juneau and has created much interest among practical fishermen and they claim that it works without a hitch and has great possibilities. It is said it can be made to fit any kind of boat.

Mr. Running has applied for patent to his invention which he calls "Running's Automatic Purse Seiner."

John A. Sleicher, editor of Leslie's Weekly, who made a visit to Alaska several years ago to have a look at the territory and who has become one of the territory's most ardent boosters, says in a recent issue of Leslie's that Alaska is the most misunderstood and misrepresented section of the United States. People generally and sincerely believe that the name Alaska is synonymous with snow and ice and couple it accordingly with ice cream freezers and cold drinks. Yet the principal cities of Alaska along its southern coast line—Juneau, Wrangell, Ketchikan, Cordova, Valdez and Seward—do not average as cold in midwinter as New York and are seldom as cold as Baltimore and Washington during the cold waves in the latter cities.

The Seattle Times recently stated that travel to Alaska is running 25 per cent greater than at this time last year.

RED CROSS WORK PUSHED

Allotment of Local Chapter Will Be Finished on Schedule Time

Women of the local Red Cross have been working especially hard during the past few weeks in order to complete the allotment of refugee garments, consisting of 200 petticoats and shirts, 10 year size, before June 1st. The Craig branch made 50 of these garments and the balance were completed last week. Ten convalescent robes, which were laid aside some months ago to give way for the refugee work, were made last week at the sewing room. Four meetings, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday were devoted to the work instead of two, and the women who sacrificed their own activities to help have the satisfaction of knowing that the allotment was finished on schedule time.

The two or three hundred Eskimo children who were left orphans in the vicinity of Nome and St. Michael have been adopted by other Natives and will be taken care of. It is said the Eskimos are very sympathetic to those in trouble and every family is figuring on how many children it can take care of. The Eskimos are very fond of children and the adopting of children has been a practice with them for years, as they believe it is not well for a couple to be without children in their old age. They are also very kind to children, corporal punishment being unknown.

Among the 200 persons arrested in Cleveland, Ohio, May 1 for rioting, was C. H. Rutherford, a Nome Socialist and a candidate at one time for mayor of the city.

It is reported that the pelt of the gigantic wolf that was killed in the Circle district will be taken to Fairbanks on the next mail stage. The pelt measures 11 feet from tip to tip and the animal stood as high as a man's shoulders. The wolf was killed by a trapper named Michael de Michel. He was running his trap line with two dogs and a sled when he noticed a pack of wolves attempting to surround him. He unhitched his dogs and sent them home and climbed a tree which was surrounded by the wolves in a short time. This was playing right into the trapper's mitt, and he killed three of them including the big fellow. Getting down from the tree he skinned his kill and hiked for home. The pelt of the large wolf brought an excellent price.

Only two mails were received at Unga between August 1st and March 29th.

Lighterage rates have been increased ten per cent this year over last year's rates at Anchorage.

A gigantic wolf was recently killed at Circle by a trapper. Its pelt measured 11 feet from tip to tip.

Record Price for Furs

(Petersburg Report)

J. S. Chastek, of the Sukoi Island fox ranch has received the returns for furs shipped from his ranch last fall and for 38 Blue Fox shipped to London received an average price of $185. This is a record price for these furs. Returns from 10 Blue Fox shipped to St. Louis brought an average of $110.

Mr. Chastek says that in the three years he has been there, his brood has increased until at the present time he has 110 pairs of foxes for breeding purposes. Last winter he shipped 48 Blue Fox, four Silver Fox and one Cross Fox and has also sold several pairs for breeding purposes to other parties. Mr. Chastek is very enthused with the outlook and says that the foxes on the island at present are bringing forth their puppies in goodly numbers. He expects that next winter he will have a considerably increased amount of furs for shipment.

[Douglas Island News]

We ask you to excuse us for getting personal, but have you cleaned up your premises of the winter's accumulation of ashes, tin cans, soup bones, near-beer bottles and other junk that accumulates around an Alaskan home during the winter months? Better do it before the hot weather comes—if it ever comes—or you will get in bad with the city and with your neighbors.

Some potatoes have been planted in this neighborhood during the past week. If the present showery weather keeps up, slickers and sou'westers will have to be furnished to the seedlings or they will die a watery death.

Alaska is about to be convulsed again by a delegate election. It seems that when we are not electing a delegate lately we are either awaiting the returns of the election or the result of the contest in Congress.
